Internal Revenue Code Section 6306(c)(2)(B)

Qualified tax collection contracts

(a) In general.

Nothing in any provision of law shall be construed to prevent the Secretary from entering into a qualified tax collection contract.

(b) Qualified tax collection contract.

For purposes of this section, the term "qualified tax collection contract" means any contract which-

(1) is for the services of any person (other than an officer or employee of the Treasury Department)-

(A) to locate and contact any taxpayer specified by the Secretary,

(B) to request full payment from such taxpayer of an amount of Federal tax specified by the Secretary and, if such request cannot be met by the taxpayer, to offer the taxpayer an installment agreement providing for full payment of such amount during a period not to exceed 5 years, and

(C) to obtain financial information specified by the Secretary with respect to such taxpayer,

(2) prohibits each person providing such services under such contract from committing any act or omission which employees of the Internal Revenue Service are prohibited from committing in the performance of similar services,

(3) prohibits subcontractors from-

(A) having contacts with taxpayers,

(B) providing quality assurance services, and

(C) composing debt collection notices, and

(4) permits subcontractors to perform other services only with the approval of the Secretary.

(c) Collection of inactive tax receivables.

(1) In general.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Secretary shall enter into one or more qualified tax collection contracts for the collection of all outstanding inactive tax receivables.

(2) Inactive tax receivables.

For purposes of this section-

- (A) In general. The term "inactive tax receivable" means any tax receivable if-
- (i) at any time after assessment, the Internal Revenue Service removes such receivable from the active inventory for lack of resources or inability to locate the taxpayer,
 - (ii) more than $\frac{1}{3}$ of the period of the applicable statute of limitation has lapsed and such receivable has not been assigned for collection to any employee of the Internal Revenue Service, or
 - (iii) in the case of a receivable which has been assigned for collection, more than 365 days have passed without interaction with the taxpayer or a third party for purposes of furthering the collection of such receivable.

(B) Tax receivable. The term "tax receivable" means any outstanding assessment which the Internal Revenue Service includes in potentially collectible inventory.

(d) Certain tax receivables not eligible for collection under qualified tax collections contracts. A tax receivable shall not be eligible for collection pursuant to a qualified tax collection contract if such receivable-

- (1) is subject to a pending or active offer-in-compromise or installment agreement,
- (2) is classified as an innocent spouse case,
- (3) involves a taxpayer identified by the Secretary as being-
 - (A) deceased,
 - (B) under the age of 18,
 - (C) in a designated combat zone, or
 - (D) a victim of tax-related identity theft,
- (4) is currently under examination, litigation, criminal investigation, or levy, or
- (5) is currently subject to a proper exercise of a right of appeal under this title.

(e) Fees.

The Secretary may retain and use-

- (1) an amount not in excess of 25 percent of the amount collected under any qualified tax collection contract for the costs of services performed under such contract, and
- (2) an amount not in excess of 25 percent of such amount collected to fund the special compliance personnel program account under section 6307 .

The Secretary shall keep adequate records regarding amounts so retained and used. The amount credited as paid by any taxpayer shall be determined without regard to this subsection .

(f) No Federal liability.

The United States shall not be liable for any act or omission of any person performing services under a qualified tax collection contract.

(g) Application of Fair Debt Collection Practices Act.

The provisions of the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act (15 U.S.C. 1692 et seq.) shall apply to any qualified tax collection contract, except to the extent superseded by section 6304 , section 7602(c), or by any other provision of this title.

(h) Contracting priority.

In contracting for the services of any person under this section, the Secretary shall utilize private collection contractors and debt collection centers on the schedule required under section 3711(g) of title 31 , United States Code, including the technology and communications infrastructure established therein, to the extent such private collection contractors and debt collection centers are appropriate to carry out the purposes of this section.

(i) Taxpayers in presidentially declared disaster areas.

The Secretary may prescribe procedures under which a taxpayer determined to be affected by a Federally declared disaster (as defined by section 165(i)(5)) may request-

- (1) relief from immediate collection measures by contractors under this section, and
- (2) a return of the inactive tax receivable to the inventory of the Internal Revenue Service to be collected by an employee thereof.

(j) Report to Congress.

Not later than 90 days after the last day of each fiscal year (beginning with the first such fiscal year ending after the date of the enactment of this subsection), the Secretary shall submit to the Committee on Ways and Means of the House of Representatives and the Committee on Finance of the Senate a report with respect to qualified tax collection contracts under this section which shall include-

- (1) annually, with respect to such fiscal year-
 - (A) the total number and amount of tax receivables provided to each contractor for collection under this section,
 - (B) the total amounts collected (and amounts of installment agreements entered into under subsection (b)(1)(B)) with respect to each contractor and the collection costs incurred (directly and indirectly) by the Internal Revenue Service with respect to such amounts,
 - (C) the impact of such contracts on the total number and amount of unpaid assessments, and on the number and amount of assessments collected by Internal Revenue Service personnel after initial contact by a contractor,
 - (D) the amount of fees retained by the Secretary under subsection (e) and a description of the use of such funds, and
 - (E) a disclosure safeguard report in a form similar to that required under section 6103(p)(5) , and
- (2) biannually (beginning with the second report submitted under this subsection)-

(A) an independent evaluation of contractor performance, and

(B) a measurement plan that includes a comparison of the best practices used by the private collectors to the collection techniques used by the Internal Revenue Service and mechanisms to identify and capture information on successful collection techniques used by the contractors that could be adopted by the Internal Revenue Service.
