26 CFR 301.7508-1: Time for performing certain acts postponed by reason of service in a combat zone or a federally-declared disaster.

(Also: Part I, § § 7508, 7508A; § § 301.7508-1, 301.7508A-1.)

Rev. Proc. 2018-58

SECTION 1. PURPOSE AND NATURE OF CHANGES

.01 This revenue procedure provides an updated list of time-sensitive acts, the performance of which may be postponed under sections 7508 and 7508A of the Internal Revenue Code (Code). Section 7508 postpones specified acts for individuals serving in the Armed Forces of the United States or serving in support of such Armed Forces in a combat zone or serving with respect to a contingency operation (as defined in 10 U.S.C. § 101(a)(13)). Section 7508A permits a postponement of the time to perform specified acts for taxpayers affected by a federally declared disaster or a terroristic or military action. The list of acts in this revenue procedure supplements the list of postponed acts in section 7508(a)(1) and § 301.7508A-1(c)(1)(vii) of the Procedure and Administration

Regulations. Rev. Proc. 2007-56, 2007-2 C.B. 388, is superseded.

.02 This revenue procedure does not, by itself, provide any postponements under section 7508A. In order for taxpayers to be entitled to a postponement of any act listed in this revenue procedure, the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) generally will publish a notice or issue other guidance (including an IRS News Release) providing relief with respect to a federally declared disaster, or a terroristic or military action. See section 4.01 of this revenue procedure.

.03 For purposes of section 7508, this revenue procedure sets forth a list of such other acts that are postponed as contemplated by section 7508(a)(1)(K). Unlike section 7508A, when a taxpayer qualifies under section 7508, all of the acts listed in section 7508(a)(1) are postponed. Therefore, when a taxpayer qualifies under section 7508, the acts listed in this revenue procedure are also postponed for that taxpayer, regardless of whether the IRS publishes a notice or issues other guidance.

.04 This revenue procedure will be updated as needed if the IRS determines that additional acts should be included in the list of postponed acts or that certain acts should be removed from the list. Also, taxpayers may recommend that additional acts be considered for postponement under sections 7508 and 7508A. See section 18 of this revenue procedure.

.05 When a federally declared disaster occurs, IRS guidance usually postpones the time to perform the acts listed in § 301.7508A-1(c)(1) as well as in this revenue procedure. However, because the acts listed in the regulations under the disaster relief provision are only postponed when disaster relief is provided, when an individual qualifies for relief by virtue of service in a combat zone, the time for performing the acts listed in the regulations is not postponed. Thus, to ensure that individuals serving in or serving in support of the Armed Forces in a combat zone or contingency operation receive a postponement of time to perform the acts listed in the regulations, this revenue procedure includes these acts.

SECTION 2. BACKGROUND

.01 Section 7508(a)(1) of the Code permits a postponement of certain time-sensitive acts for individuals serving in the Armed Forces of the United States, or serving in support of such Armed Forces, in an area designated by the President as a combat zone under section 112(c)(2), or serving with respect to a contingency operation (as defined in 10 U.S.C. § 101(a)(13)). Among these acts are the filing of certain returns, the payment of certain taxes, the filing of a United States Tax Court petition for redetermination of a deficiency, and the filing of a refund claim. In the event of service in a combat zone or service with respect to a contingency operation, the acts specified in section 7508(a)(1) are automatically postponed. This revenue procedure sets forth a list of such other acts that are also automatically postponed as contemplated by section 7508(a)(1)(K). In addition, the IRS may include acts not listed in this revenue procedure in any other published guidance (including an IRS News Release) related to the combat zone or contingency operation.

.02 Section 7508A provides that certain acts performed by taxpayers and the government may be postponed if the taxpayer is affected by a federally declared disaster or a terroristic or military action. Prior to 2008, section 7508A(a) referred to a “Presidentially declared disaster,” defined in section 1033(h)(3). The Tax Extenders and Alternative Minimum Tax Relief Act of 2008 (2008 Act), P.L. 110-343, Division C, § 706(a)(2)(D)(vii), amended section 7508A(a) to refer to a “federally declared disaster,” defined in section 165(h)(3)(C)(i). Section 706(a)(1) of the 2008 Act amended section 165(h) to provide the definition of a “federally declared disaster.” Effective December 19, 2014, the Tax Technical Corrections Act of 2014 (2014 Act), P.L. 113-295, § 221(a)(27), removed the definition of “federally declared disaster” from section 165(h)(3) and placed it in section 165(i)(5). However, the 2014 Act did not amend section 7508A(a) with the new cross-reference for the definition of a “federally declared disaster.” Effective March 23, 2018, the Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2018, P.L. 115-141, § 401(b)(10) amended section 7508A(a) to reflect the cross-reference for the definition of a “federally declared disaster” in section 165(i)(5)(A). However, the regulations under section 7508A have yet to be revised to change the reference to the definition of a federally declared disaster. A “terroristic or military action” is defined in section 692(c)(2). Section 301.7508A-1(d)(1) defines seven types of affected taxpayers, including any individual whose principal residence (for purposes of section 1033(h)(4)) is located in a “covered disaster area” and any business entity or sole proprietor whose principal place of business is located in a “covered disaster area.” Postponements under section 7508A are not available simply because a disaster or a terroristic or military action has occurred. Generally, the IRS will publish a notice or issue other guidance (including an IRS News Release) authorizing the postponement. See section 4.01 of this revenue procedure.

SECTION 3. SCOPE

This revenue procedure applies to individuals serving in the Armed Forces of the United States in a combat zone, or serving in support of such Armed Forces, individuals serving with respect to contingency operations, affected taxpayers by reason of federally declared disasters within the meaning of § 301.7508A-1(d)(1), or taxpayers whom the IRS determines are affected by a terroristic or military action. Section 17 of this revenue procedure also applies to transferors who are not affected taxpayers but who are involved in a section 1031 like-kind exchange transaction and are entitled to relief under section 17.02(2) of this revenue procedure.

SECTION 4. APPLICATION

.01 As provided by § 301.7508A-1(e), in the event of a federally declared disaster or terroristic or military action, the IRS will issue a news release, or other guidance, authorizing the postponement of acts described in this revenue procedure, that defines which taxpayers are considered “affected taxpayers,” and describes the acts postponed, the duration of the postponement, and the location of the covered disaster area. See, for example, IR-2018-199 (summarizing the relief provided for Hurricane Michael). The guidance may provide for postponement of only certain acts listed in this revenue procedure based on the time when the disaster occurred, its severity, and other factors.

Unless the notice or other guidance for a particular disaster provides that the relief is limited, the guidance will generally postpone all of the acts listed in the regulations and this revenue procedure.

.02 Provisions of the internal revenue laws requiring the timely performance of specified acts postponed under sections 7508 and 7508A are listed in the tables below. In addition, section 17 of this revenue procedure expands the categories of taxpayers qualifying for relief to include transferors of certain property and provides additional postponements of deadlines solely with respect to section 1031 like-kind exchange transactions that are affected by a federally declared disaster. If an IRS News Release or other guidance is issued with respect to a specific federally declared disaster and authorizes postponement of acts in this revenue procedure, affected taxpayers may use the postponement rules provided in section 17 of this revenue procedure in lieu of section 6 of this revenue procedure. Transferors who are covered by the like-kind exchange rules of section 17 of this revenue procedure, but who are not “affected taxpayers” as defined by the IRS News Release, other guidance, or § 301.7508A-1(d)(1) are not eligible for relief under section 7508A or other sections of this revenue procedure.

.03 The following tables may, but do not necessarily include, acts specified in sections 7508 or 7508A and the regulations thereunder. Thus, for example, no mention is made in the following tables of the filing of tax returns or the payment of taxes (or an installment thereof) because these acts are already covered by sections 7508 and 7508A and the applicable regulations. Also, the following tables generally do not refer to making elections required to be made on tax returns or attachments thereto, or the filing of any form required to be attached to the return, because postponement of the filing of a tax return automatically postpones the time for making any election required to be made on the return or an attachment thereto, or the filing of any form required to be attached to the return. For example, the Form 5471, "Information Return of U.S. Persons With Respect to Certain Foreign Corporations" is required to be attached to the taxpayer's tax return (or, if applicable, partnership or exempt organization return). Accordingly, the Form 5471 is not included in this revenue procedure because the postponement of the filing of the tax return (or other return) automatically postpones the time to file Form 5471. In addition, these tables generally do not refer to the filing of information returns or furnishing of statements. However, postponed acts relating to information reporting (other than year-end deadlines) are set forth in section 14.02 of this revenue procedure.

This revenue procedure, however, does include acts that are postponed under § 301.7508A-1(c)(1). The regulation lists acts that may be postponed when there has been a federally declared disaster, but does not apply to postpone acts for individuals serving in, or serving in support of, the Armed Forces of the United States in a combat zone or contingency operation. For example, § 301.7508A-1(c)(1)(iii) provides a postponement for certain contributions to and distributions from qualified retirement plans. This revenue procedure also includes these acts to reflect that they are postponed for individuals serving in, or serving in support of, the Armed Forces of the United States in a combat zone or contingency operation.

.04 The following tables refer only to postponement of acts performed by taxpayers. Additional guidance will be published in the Internal Revenue Bulletin if a decision is made that acts performed by the government may be postponed under section 7508A. See, for example, Notice 2005-82, 2005-47 I.R.B. 978. Additional guidance will also be published if a decision is made to provide some form of relief in connection with a federally declared disaster other than a postponement of acts. See, for example, Rev. Procs. 2014-50, 2014-37 I.R.B. 540, and 2014-49, 2014-37 I.R.B. 535.

Statute or Regulation

Act Postponed

1. Chapter 1,
Subchapter E of the Code

Examples of such acts include (a) the requirements in Rev. Procs. 2006-45, 2006-45 I.R.B. 851, 2006-46, 2006-45 I.R.B. 859, 2002-39, 2002-1 C.B. 1046, and 2003-62, 2003-2 C.B. 299, that Form 1128, Application to Adopt, Change, or Retain a Tax Year, be filed with the Director, Internal Revenue Service Center, on or before the due date (or the due date including extensions) of the tax return for the short period required to effect the change in accounting period; and (b) the requirement in Rev. Proc. 2015-13, 2015-5 I.R.B. 419, section 6.03(1), as amended by Rev. Proc. 2018-1, 2018-1 I.R.B. 1, section 9.05(2), that an Application for Change in Accounting Method (Form 3115) must be filed with the timely filed (including extensions) original tax return for the year of the accounting method change and that a duplicate copy of the Form 3115 must be filed with the IRS in Covington, Kentucky, no later than when the original Form 3115 is filed.

2. Sec. 1.381(c)(4)-
1(d)(2)

If the acquiring corporation is not permitted to use the method of accounting previously used by it, the method of accounting used by the distributor/transferor corporation, or the principal method of accounting, or if the acquiring corporation wishes to use a new method of accounting, then the acquiring corporation must apply to the Commissioner to use another method. Section 1.381(c)(4)-1(d)(2)(iii) provides that applications are due by the later of (1) the due date for filing the application as specified in § 1.446-1(e), or (2) the earlier of (a) the day that is 180 days after the date of distribution or transfer, or (b) the day on which the acquiring corporation files its federal income tax return for the taxable year in which the distribution or transfer occurred.

3. Sec. 1.381(c)(5)-
1(d)(2)

If the acquiring corporation is not permitted to use the inventory method previously used by it, or the inventory method used by the distributor/transferor corporation, or the principal inventory method of accounting, or wishes to use a new inventory method of accounting, then the acquiring corporation must apply to the Commissioner to use another method. Section 1.381(c)(5)-1(d)(2)(iii) provides that applications are due by the later of (1) the due date for filing the application as specified in § 1.446-1(e), or (2) the earlier of (a) the day that is 180 days after the date of distribution or transfer, or (b) the day on which the acquiring corporation files its federal income tax return for the tax year in which the distribution or transfer occurred.

4. Sec. 1.442-
1(b)(1)

In order to secure prior approval of an adoption, change, or retention of a taxpayer's annual accounting period, the taxpayer generally must file an application on Form 1128, Application to Adopt, Change, or Retain a Tax Year, with the Commissioner within such time as is provided in administrative procedures published by the Commissioner from time to time. See, for example, Rev. Proc. 2006-45, 2006-2 C.B. 851; Rev. Proc. 2006-46, 2006-2 C.B. 859;

Rev. Proc. 2003-62, 2003-2 C.B. 299; and Rev. Proc. 2002-39, 2002-1 C.B. 1046.

5. Sec. 1.444-3T(b)(1)

A section 444 election must be made by filing Form 8716, Election to Have a Tax Year Other Than a Required Tax Year, with the Service Center. Generally, Form 8716 must be filed by the earlier of (a) the 15th day of the fifth month following the month that includes the first day of the taxable year for which the election will first be effective, or (b) the due date (without regard to extensions) of the income tax return resulting from the section 444 election.

6. Sec. 1.446-1(e)(2)(i)

Section 6.03(1) of Rev. Proc. 2015-13 requires a taxpayer that is changing a method of accounting within the terms of the revenue procedure pertaining to automatic method changes to attach the application form to the timely filed return for the year of change. Section 6.03(4)(a) of Rev. Proc. 2015-13 grants an automatic extension of six months from the due date of the return (excluding extensions) within which to file an amended return with the application for the change following a timely filed original return (including extensions) for the year of change.

7. Sec. 1.446-1(e)(3)(i)

To secure the Commissioner's consent to a change in method of accounting that is not an automatic method change, the taxpayer must file an application on Form 3115, Application for Change in Accounting Method, with the Commissioner during the taxable year in which the taxpayer desires to make the change in method of accounting (i.e., must be filed by the last day of such taxable year). This filing requirement is also in Rev. Proc. 2015-13, section 6.03(2).

8. Sec. 451(g)

Section 451(g) permits a taxpayer using the cash receipts and disbursements method of accounting who derives income from the sale or exchange of livestock in excess of the number he would sell if he followed his usual business practices to elect (which election is deemed valid if made within the period described in section 1033(e)(2)) to include such income for the taxable year following the taxable year of such sale or exchange if, under his usual business practices, the sale or exchange would not have occurred if it were not for drought, flood, or other weather-related conditions and that such conditions resulted in the area being designated as eligible for Federal assistance.

9. Sec. 1.7519-2T(a)(1)-(4)

A partnership or S corporation must file a Form 8752, Required Payment or Refund Under Section 7519, if the taxpayer has made an election under section 444 to use a taxable year other than its required taxable year and the election is still in effect. The Form 8752 must be filed and any required payment must be made by the date stated in the instructions to Form 8752.

10. Rev. Proc. 92-29, 1992-1 C.B. 748, Section 6.02

A developer of real estate requesting the Commissioner's consent to use the alternative cost method must file a private letter ruling request within 30 days after the close of the taxable year in which the first benefited property in the project is sold. The request must include the information described in section 6.04 of the revenue procedure and a consent extending the period of limitation on the assessment of income tax with respect to the use of the alternative cost method.
